

Bright Ideas Grants 2022 – 2023

Grant Recipient	Department	Title of Project
Kate Kruger and Jude Feldman	Occupational Therapy	Reducing the number of patients requiring surgery: Can access to early hand therapy for patients on the surgical outpatient waitlist improve patient outcomes?
Kristie Taylor	Aboriginal Hospital Liaison Program (AHLP)	Improving the kidney transplant experience for Aboriginal patients
Dr Shelley Gower	Centre for Nursing Research	The influence of the COVID-19 pandemic on new graduates' transition to practice and career planning
Dr John Blakey	Respiratory Department	Comparison of personal ultrasonic spirometry at home and electrical impedance tomography with clinic spirometry for monitoring of chronic lung disease
Dr Brad Wibrow	Intensive Care	How much thiamine is enough in malnourished patients receiving total parenteral nutrition? (TIE study)
Dr Gemma Doleman	Centre for Nursing Research	The impact of patient bed moves on nurse-sensitive outcomes: an economic evaluation
Gillian Gregory	Physiotherapy	Multiple myeloma and exercise: exploring patient perceptions of enablers and barriers to engaging in exercise and physical activity
Samantha Gilmour	Occupational Therapy	A missed opportunity: does an ED-to-home transition intervention reduce ED representation rates in older adults?
Dr Gemma Doleman	Centre for Nursing Research	The impact of the COVID-19 health pandemic on junior doctors and nurses workloads
Melinda Williamson	Occupational Therapy	Early identification of our most vulnerable patients to facilitate timely discharge: an evaluation of screening tools to identify patients for Occupational Therapy

ENDS